

Mother María Félix Torres

Foundress of the Company of the Saviour

PRAYER

for private devotion

Merciful Father Your Son, our divine Saviour, glorified You by lovingly fulfilling Your will even unto death. You inspired in Your daughter María an ardent desire to glorify You and to closely follow Jesus Christ, by cooperating in the redemption of the world through the Company of the Saviour which she founded. Grant us, through her intercession, the favour we ask of You, so that the Church, which she ardently loved as the Spouse of Christ, will raise her to the honour of the altars, for Your greater glory. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory.

In conformity with the decree of Pope Urban VIII, in no way do we presume to anticipate the Church's judgement.

Mother María Félix Torres was born in Albelda in the province of Huesca (Spain) on August 25, 1907 and was baptized on September 12 in that town.

When she was fourteen, she felt the calling to devote herself entirely to Jesus Christ, and was irresistibly drawn towards the Ignatian spirituality. The greater glory of God, following Christ and being united with Him, became the reason for her existence. Meanwhile she graduated in Chemical Science in order to become a more useful instrument in the service of Christ.

Through a surprising, though unintended, parallelism with the spiritual journey of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the Lord led her to the founding of the Company of the Saviour, erected as a religious congregation of diocesan right in 1952 and of pontifical right in 1986.

God assigned to her within His Church, the task of Christian education of youth, above all college students, in any part of the world. To this end, the Mater Salvatoris schools were founded with the mission of propagating the charisma granted to her by God: adherence to the Pope, a tender love for Our Lady, and to be a permanent evangelical ferment leading the society to Jesus Christ.

She died a holy death in Madrid on January 12, 2001, and her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery of the House of Spirituality of the Company of the Saviour in Mota del Marqués, Valladolid (Spain).

Please report any favours received through the intercession of Mother María Félix Torres to the Sisters of the Compañía del Salvador, calle Tapia de Casariego 19, 28023 Madrid, Spain www.mariafelix.org